

iCurate[®] Coming Soon

Monthly Forthcoming Title List Subscription

Easily Manage New, Forthcoming, & Trending Titles

Remove the guesswork from new title selection with these librarian-curated lists of prepublication titles, delivered on the first of every month within ipage®, and sized appropriately for your collection.

Going beyond the standard bestsellers, Coming Soon lists are based on the typical public library’s English print collection needs, and includes debut authors, surprise celebrity authors, and other unpredictable successes.

(Y)Our MLS-degreed librarians track publishing trends, monitor library and retail ordering patterns, and utilize their public library selector experience to identify titles needed for a well-balanced, relevant, high-circulation collection.

“Our adult nonfiction selector said she would do all her ordering using the lists — the books are really on target. We’re so glad we signed up for this program!”

Jennifer Ralston, Harford County Public Library

Comprehensive

- Balanced to meet the needs of the typical American public library.
- Selections based on a rolling publication schedule – previous month, current month, and up to three months prepublication.
- Features predicted popularity, review coverage, and drop-ins.
- Reflects publishing industry schedules and seasonal subjects.
- Deduplicated so that a title will not repeat.

Customizable

- Mix and match three list sizes by collection based on circulation, budget, or selector preference.

How is this different from standing orders?

Coming Soon fills gaps that standing orders cannot. A single set of lists covering all print collection areas is delivered once per month, and there is no duplication between Coming Soon lists. Selections are based on our librarians' expertise, and not limited by author, series, or other limiting criteria.

What about my existing standing orders?

Coming Soon customers may choose to de-enroll from most standing order programs (SOPs). However, there are some cases where you may want to keep some standing orders in place to complement Coming Soon, such as SOPs with line-item grids or specialized titles. We can work with you on what's best for your library.

How is this different than HITS and other complimentary ipage lists?

Coming Soon provides a broader and deeper coverage in all collections for all ages. You control the size of the lists based on your library's needs, and it's delivered directly to your ipage® account for easy access.

Do the lists include reprints or other formats?

Coming Soon lists do not include: reprints, reissues, consumables, languages other than English, formats other than print titles previously sent on Coming Soon lists
